Once in a lifetime special event and an exciting time for the LAOH...125 years of Greatness! The LAOH will continue to make history as its members, family and friends come together during this memorable celebration October 10 through 12, 2019

The event will take place at the historic Dearborn Inn located in Dearborn, Michigan.

The LAOH will kick off the celebration in a spiritual manner on October 10. We will go to the Solanus Casey Center. At the Center we will have a private tour, LAOH National Chaplain Monsignor Gray will celebrate Mass and lunch will be following Mass. Later that evening there will be a special presentation that you will not want to miss.

We will be producing a book commemorating 125 years of the LAOH. Each State will be asked to contribute their history to this publication. Photographs will be taken of all Boards and State representatives in attendance this weekend. This is our history in the making and we want to record it. The book will come out after the 125th Celebration so that we can include these photos.
