CALL TO ACTION

Sisters,

This bill is stalled. This is what we need to make noise about. This is so important to pass. An outside reporting agency and the other things this bill calls for are going to be all that ever makes a difference. If there is never any accountability, it will never stop. I went to the VA lab yesterday for blood work, the technician working there told me stories of male veterans who try and do gross things, while she is taking their blood. It doesn't end when their service does. I reached out to Congresswoman Jackie Spier, she spearheaded this bill and I want to know the next step, what and who has the bill stagnant.

Please contact your representative in Congress and demand that they sign on to this bill. It is an ISSUE ALL WOMEN should be fighting for. Do not let them discount our sisters who are serving or have served in the military. This could be how your daughter or granddaughter will be treated.

Together we are Stronger!
