

Don't just watch the news, experience it at the Texas-Mexico border where LAOH pilgrims partner with Columbanos to learn to enact Catholic Social Teaching!

As an organization founded by and supporting Irish immigrants, migration to the United States remains an emotional focal point of LAOH prayer and practice. It is a Catholic issue.

“Prayer that doesn't lead to concrete action toward our brothers is a fruitless and incomplete prayer.” – Pope Francis You're invited to join the LAOH Political Education Committee (PEC) at the St. Columban Mission for Justice, Peace and Ecology April 16 – 22, 2023, in El Paso, Texas, which includes two days and an overnight stay in Juarez, Mexico.

- Travel to/from El Paso, TX, is at one's own expense.
- Cost at Mission & Juarez Mission is $110/night which includes lodging, all transportation, and meals at the Mission.
- Accommodations are retreat-style.
- Safety of lodging, transportation, and food/beverages is assured by our Columban hosts.
- Passport is required.

Visit <https://columbanipe.org/border-awareness-program> for general information; the specific LAOH itinerary will differ.

Contact PEC Chair Gail Dapolito at laohnationalpoliticaledu@gmail.com or Connie Buscha at texaslaohffai@gmail.com for specifics.

Donations may be sent, by check, to National Missions & Charities Officer, Natalie Peterinelli.