A little Irish trivia

What is the Christmas song that sounds Irish?

"Christmas in Killarney" was first released by Irish American singer Dennis Day; it reached the Top 10 on the Billboard Charts. The following year the song was recorded by Bing Crosby with a chorus and orchestra in 1951, popularizing the song even more.

- The song featured prominently in the Rankin/Bass 1981 Christmas TV special, The Leprechaun's Christmas Gold.
- Christmas In Killarney is the story of an Irish girl who's been living in America and is finally bringing her American fiancé back home to Killarney to meet her family and friends
- Killarney is home to St Mary's, a beautiful Gothic-style building that serves as the cathedral of the Catholic Diocese of Kerry.
