“Irish and Irish American men and women from all over the United States traveled to Omaha, Nebraska the week of May 8-12, 1894 for the Ancient Order of Hibernians National Convention. One of the historic items on the Agenda of the Convention was the establishment of a Ladies Auxiliary.” LAOH History Book

We have a proud history of service and dedication to our Church, Ireland and the United States. Most importantly, we have a great Sisterhood that promotes our Motto of Friendship, Unity and Christian Charity. Since 1935, the Columban have been our primary charity. The Columban Fathers are very appreciative of this long history of charitable giving to help their missions. On Monday May 6, 2024, the Columban Fathers will be Celebrating a Special Mass for all living members of the LAOH.

I would like to share with you the letter that Fr. Chris Saenz sent to the National Board.

“For 130 years, the LAOH has embraced your stated goals of Friendship, Unity and Christian Charity will strengthening your Roman Catholic Faith and Communities.
