Dear Sisters,

I am truly honored to have been re-appointed as National Legal Counsel on the Ladies Ancient Order of Hibernians, Inc. National Board by our National President, Mary Ann Lubinsky. For the past two years, I have been a member of LAOH Division 1 Savannah, Chatham County, Georgia, and I currently serve as Division Historian. I am also the Georgia State Board Catholic Social Justice Education Committee Appointee. I have previously been a member of LAOH Division 9, Daughters of Erin, District of Columbia for over 30 years and I am a DC Past President. As National Legal Counsel, my mission is to identify legal issues and other risks that could impact the Ladies Ancient Order of Hibernians, Inc.

I grew up in Dover, New Hampshire, graduated from St. Mary Academy and St. Thomas Aquinas High School, and was a communicant at St. Joseph's Parish. I am a graduate of the University of New Hampshire with a BS in Chemical Engineering, New York University Graduate School of Business Administration with an MBA in Finance, and Georgetown University Law Center with a JD. I have worked as a chemical engineer for Exxon in New Jersey, a business planner and financial analyst for IBM in New York and Maryland, and an associate for the law firm Chadbourne & Parke in Washington, DC. I currently provide litigation support for a variety of clients.

It is a privilege to serve as an appointee to the National Board and to provide support to our Order.

In Friendship, Unity and Christian Charity,

Ann Durkin Fisher
