

LAOH 2025 FFAI TOUR

Please read this information for the 2025 FFAI trip. Once we know who will be receiving grants, we will tweak the final version. Some nights we will add dinner reservations.

Below is the current quote and costs have slightly increased. If you arrive late, or depart early, the only adjustment made will be your hotel room. PLEASE RESPOND IF YOU PLAN TO ATTEND BY FRIDAY JANUARY 20TH TO laohnationalvicepresident@gmail.com

If you plan on going, you will receive a link from the travel company, via email, for your individual total, to which you will pay with your credit card. You can pay in full and guarantee the exchange rate, (currently 1 dollar is .98 euro) or pay a deposit and the balance 6 weeks prior. It is an encrypted link with the travel company; therefore, no one is handling your personal credit card number.

I would suggest travel insurance. If you book it through the airline, it will not cover the land cost. You can contact them to add it on, or you can book travel insurance to cover both the Air and Land, which has all the other coverage i.e. medical, delay, lost luggage, etc. I normally use Allianz.
