Dear Sisters,

It is truly an honor and a privilege to introduce myself as your newly elected National Irish Historian. I am excited to begin working with our dedicated Irish Historians across the country.

Over the next two years, my focus will be to honor our shared history and strengthen engagement within our membership. I look forward to hearing directly from Historians at every level — State, County, and Division — so I can better understand the work already being done. Sharing this information will help us educate our members more effectively, improve communication, and continue to grow our Order.

As with Missions & Charities, I appreciate your patience as I get up to speed in this new role. Please know that I am always available by email, phone, or text for any questions, concerns, or suggestions. And if I don't have an answer, I will make sure to find one.

Thank you again, ladies. I look forward to working with each of you.

In Our Motto,

Mary
