Dear Sisters,

I was certainly not planning on writing this letter a few weeks ago. I had previously been asked to stay on the National Board as an appointee by our incoming President and gratefully accepted. As a 23-year member of this order, I continue to say I will do whatever is needed to help further the order. That is how I was appointed as secretary of the Constitutional Convention. So, when a member of the board decided not to seek higher office and step down just days before the convention, I was asked once again to step up. I did not accept this request lightly.

I appreciate all the love and support I received from my sisters around the country as I was nominated for the office of National Treasurer. It was truly a heartwarming moment for me to see the ladies from so many states, standing during my nomination speech by PNP Kathi Linton.

In return for being elected, I assure you that I will complete my job duties to the best of my abilities as dictated by the Constitution. I will be available for questions, concerns and any help needed by my sisters and counterparts at any level.

In our motto,

Kim
